Salesjobs.co.uk: Our Target is Your Job

The UK's fastest growing job board extends their exposure and launches a leading sales network.

SalesJobs.co.uk and SalesVacancies.com are the key sites which have been built using CV-Library's successful usability and technology combined with a fresh new layout and individual design. Both domains already have strong search engine optimisation and high page rankings; appearing in the top 5 search results on Google.

Lee Biggins, Managing Director: "We're really excited to be launching this network and I'm confident that it will be a huge success. Sales' is one of our top industries and introducing sites attracting sector specific candidates is something we've been working on for a long time; we just needed to stay patient until the right domains became available."

Top UK recruiters are already advertising thousands of up to date sales vacancies on SalesJobs.co.uk and increasing their exposure. Candidates can now register their CV for free, apply for jobs online and access a career centre designed to support their search for jobs in sales.

CV-Library's affiliate network continues to expand, now containing thousands of local and industry specific micro-sites such as: Bristol-Jobs.co.uk, JobsRetail.co.uk and British-ITjobs.co.uk.
